HAD RECEIVED A DIVINE CALL.

Chicago Girl Offers Herself as a Sacrifice to a New Religion.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Miss Frances Wakley of 6309 Lowe avenue, believing that she had received a divine call to offer herself to a sacrifice, Wednesday poured oil over her clothing and a pile of torn books and papers on which she stood, and set the whole on fire. She is now in the hospital so terribly burned that her recovery is deemed impossible. In the next room was the aged mother of the girl, paralyzed, listening to her daughter's voice, but unable to aid her in any way.

Miss Wakley, who is twenty-three years of age, had lately joined a secret religious cult, the nature of which none of her friends will divulge. It is believed that constant study of the new religion had unsettled her mind.

GUNBOAT NEWPORT REPORTED.

Disabled American War Vessel Heading for Norfolk.

New York, Feb. 9.—The Mallory line steamship Concho, in Wednesday from Galveston, on Tuesday passed the disabled United States gunboat Newport, which sailed from Boston a week ago for Santo Domingo. The Newport was reported as having lost her propeller at sea on Feb. 3. When passed by the Concho she was in latitude 36.20, longitude 75, and proceeding under sail, heading east northeast for Norfolk. She simply asked the Concho to report her.

Three Men Fatally Hurt.

Baltimore, Feb. 9.—Three men were fatally injured by the explosion of 1,200 pounds of powder Wednesday at the Rockdale powder mill. Cause of the explosion unknown.

MRS. CHADWICK PAID NO DUTY.

Brought in Jewels Valued at Eighty Thousand Dollars.

Cleveland, Feb. 9.—The customs authorities have located altogether jewels to the value of $80,000 brought into this country by Mrs. Chadwick upon which it is definitely known that she paid no duty. Of these valuables about $40,000 worth have been turned over to the customs officials by parties who held them.

WORKMEN AGAIN QUIT

PARTIAL STRIKE OF EMPLOYEES AT PUTLOFF IRON WORKS AT ST. PETERSBURG.

INVOLVES QUESTION OF PAY

PRESENT TROUBLE ARISES FROM DEMAND OF MEN FOR WAGES WHILE ON STRIKE.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 9.—A partial strike at the Putloff iron works and the complete tie up of the St. Petersburg car factory, gave rise to rumors Wednesday of a general recrudescence of the strike movement here, but the strike has not extended to other establishments and the success of the manager of the Putloff works in preventing the great body of workmen from following the example of their comrades in two of the shops who had walked out, gives basis for hope of an amicable settlement. The present trouble involves the questions of pay for the time the men were out on strike and the eight-hour day, which were discussed at a meeting of employers Wednesday night. The employers came to no absolute decision but determined to adopt a conciliatory attitude. They probably will concede a nine-hour day, which will satisfy the employees pending general legislation on the matter of an eight-hour day, which will be binding upon employers throughout Russia.

At present six government factories and thirty private establishments are working fifty-seven hours or less weekly and twenty-eight large enterprises more than fifty-seven hours. The question of allowance for time on strike is not easy of settlement. Some works, including the American Westinghouse company, have voluntarily paid their men

they did not work, but several large establishments, including the St. Petersburg car factory and the Putloff iron works, refused to do so, claiming that it would swallow up the most of their yearly profits. The Putloff works, where the strike originated and was of double duration, would be especially hard hit, as the strike pay roll would amount to $130,000.

The St. Petersburg car factory already has paid three days but is unwilling to concede more.

Governor General Trepoof does not wish to interfere, this question being a purely economic one, but he has intimated to the masters that it is desirable that they should reach a settlement with their men. It is hoped, in view of the conciliatory attitude of the masters and the apparent readiness of the men to listen to argument, that another crisis will be avoided.

The interrogation of Maxim Gorky by the police prosecutor was begun Wednesday in the court of justice, to which he was driven in a carriage from the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul.

Gorky is quite well and is subjected to only the ordinary regulations of prisoners in fortresses, which require the wearing of a special garb to prevent the possibility of their escape.

Mme. Gorky is not deeply worried. After her interview with her husband Tuesday, she said that her husband was not anxious to write.

"What is the use of writing," he told her, "when, according to the fortress regulations, what I write must be burned when I leave?"

WISCONSIN GIRL MISSING.

Mysteriously Disappears From a College in Michigan.

Berrien Springs, Mich., Feb. 9.—Miss Olive Templeton, eighteen years old, has disappeared from the Adventist college in this village.

Miss Templeton was sent from chapel exercises last Thursday morning. Since that time no trace of her has been found.

Sheriff Tennant has detailed a score of deputies on the case and St. Joseph river was vainly dragged for several miles in the hope of finding her body.

Miss Templeton is a daughter of a wealthy business man at Sawyer, Wis., and came to the college last September. Her father, in a telegram to the sheriff, says he sent his daughter to college so she could escape the advances of a young man.

One belief is that this young man has abducted the girl or murdered her. In Miss Templeton's room was found all of her clothing, even to the hat and cloak she was accustomed to wear, her money and other belongings.

Another theory advanced to account for Miss Templeton's disappearance is that in a fit of homesickness she deliberately walked out into zero weather, inadequately clothed, with the idea of freezing to death.

ELECTORAL VOTE CANVASSED.

Quadrantal Function of Congress Attracted a Large Crowd.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Although the result of the presidential election was known early in the evening of Nov. 8, it was not until Wednesday when the senate and house met in joint session that Theodore Roosevelt and Charles W. Fairbanks were officially declared to be the elected president and vice president respectively for four years beginning March 4, 1905. This quadrantal function of congress attracted to the house chamber, where the electoral vote was canvassed, an immense gathering, prominent among the auditors being Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt, the president's sister, Mrs. Cowles, and Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, wife of the vice president-elect. President Pro Tempore Frye of the senate, presided and delivered the announcement of the result of the count, which showed that Roosevelt and Fairbanks received 335 electoral votes and Parker and Davis 140. The whole proceeding consumed exactly fifty minutes, thereby establishing a new record in counting the electoral vote.

For two hours preceding and for three hours following the joint proceedings the question of freight rate regulation held full sway. As on the previous days of the debate, both Republicans and Democrats claimed the credit for originating the present legislation.

KEARNS ENTERS A DISCLAIMER.

He Did Not Vote in Favor of Separate Statehood for New Mexico.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The senate Wednesday received from Mr. Kearns a disclaimer of the vote in favor of separate statehood for New Mexico, which the records for Tuesday credited him with. He said that he had been misunderstood by the clerks and he had voted against the provision. Several senators corroborated his statement, but a number asserted that they had understood him to vote for the amendment.

The senate spent almost an hour in connection with the house of representatives is canvassing the presidential vote and the remainder of the session was devoted to executive business.

MAKES SIGNIFICANT SPEECH.

Norwegian Premier Discusses the Consular Question.

Christiania, Feb. 9.—In the storthing Wednesday Dr. Hagerup, the Norwegian premier, made a significant speech, announcing the failure of the negotiations between Sweden and Norway on the question of separate consular representation. He said a most serious situation was created. The people of Norway were animated by a desire to continue the good understanding with neighboring nations; but the present conditions of the union are indefensible and cannot continue without endangering these relations. It was the duty, therefore, he said, of the storthing to make an unrestricted provision for the assumption by Norway of the national and international position to which she is entitled as a sovereign state, and more free working forms of co-operation must be considered if the existing bonds of union between Sweden and Norway are to continue. Premier Hagerup asked for the full co-operation of the storthing with the cabinet, which he said was prepared to resign if remaining in office was calculated to place difficulties in the way of co-operation of the various parties.

MOST DEADLY POISON KNOWN.

Curare Believed to Have Caused Death of Hoch's Wives.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Curare, the most subtle and deadly poison known to modern science, is believed by Dr. Joseph Springer, formerly coroner's physician, to have caused the death of Johann Hoch's wives.

Dr. Springer is convinced the fatal drug was probably administered by means of engagement or wedding rings.

"By turning the inner edge of the ring, said Dr. Springer, "or making it rough or sharp in any manner, applying the curare on the rough edge and then slipping the ring on the finger so as to cause the slightest abrasion of the skin, death would follow."

"It would only be necessary for the slightest quantity of the poison to reach the blood. One sixteenth of a grain of curare is fatal."

New York, Feb. 9.—In custody of a Chicago detective Hoch started for Chicago on the Lackawanna train late Wednesday.

WORST BLIZZARD OF THE YEAR.

Fierce Storm in Nebraska Causes Great Suffering.

Omaha, Feb. 9.—Specials to newspapers and reports to the weather bureau from northern and western sections of Nebraska, tell of the worst blizzard of the year, which is said to be moving southwest. Already a foot of snow covers the greater part of Nebraska and it is probable that a bad blizzard on the ranges at this time will result in great suffering and loss of cattle and sheep.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

THREE MEN KILLED AND SEVERAL OTHERS ARE INJURED IN A MICHIGAN MINE.

FOUR OR FIVE MEN ENTOMBED

ALL HOPE OF RESCUING THOSE IN THE MINE ABANDONED BY THE SEARCHERS.

LEGISLATOR IS EXPELLED.

Frank D. Comerford's Name Stricken From Rolls of Illinois House.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 9.—Frank D. Comerford, a representative from the Second senatorial district of Cook county to the forty-fourth general assembly, was Wednesday expelled as a member of that body and his name stricken from the rolls of the house of assembly. His expulsion was the climax of a series of sensational charges of corruption and attempted bribery made by Mr. Comerford against members of the Illinois legislature, which were investigated by a special committee of the house appointed for that purpose, which found after protracted sittings and listening to a great mass of testimony, that the charges brought by Mr. Comerford were utterly unfounded. This committee reported its findings to the house and Comerford's expulsion followed after an exciting debate.

Woman Burned to Death.

Cincinnati, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Frank Corry was burned to death by an explosion of a coal oil lamp at her home Wednesday night. Two hundred dollars which the woman carried about her neck was destroyed by the flames and diamonds valued at $1,000 which the woman wore were lost during the excitement.

HUSBAND DEAD AND WIFE DYING.

Case of Supposed Murder and Suicide in South Dakota.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Feb. 9.—News reached here of a double tragedy on a farm twelve miles north of Sioux Falls. The victims are Lars Olson, a farmer, who is dead, and his wife, who is expected to die at any time.

Olson, who was an elderly man, recently married a young woman and their family life was marred by frequent quarrels. It is supposed Olson mortally wounded his wife in an effort to kill her and then killed himself.

Detective Pleads Guilty.

Denver, Feb. 9.—City Detective William H. Green pleaded guilty in the criminal court Wednesday to the charge of "stuffing" a ballot box at the election of November 6, 1904. It was alleged that Green, with others, cast 587 fraudulent ballots in the precinct known as "Green county." Green was sentenced to jail for ninety days.

REMAINS OF JOHN PAUL JONES.

Believed to Have Been Discovered in Paris.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Ambassador Porter has some reason to believe that he at last has discovered the remains of John Paul Jones. Ever since he has been in Paris Mr. Porter, ably seconded by Arthur Bailly-Blanchard, secretary of embassy, has been following every clue that has fallen in his way in the effort to locate the remains of this peerless American sailor. About four years ago one of the strongest of these clues led to complete discouragement. It indicated that the remains of John Paul Jones, who died in Paris, had been interred in a small urban cemetery, but a search for this cemetery disclosed the fact that it had been abandoned early in the last century and that its site was covered with buildings, leaving little hope that any remains of corpses interred there could be found. These facts were reported to the state department at the time and there the matter has rested until recently.

Not long ago, however, Mr. Porter came into possession of some additional information which warranted the hope that the sailor's skeleton now reposes beneath the foundations or within the cellar of some of the dilapidated old flats which stand on the ground once occupied by the cemetery. If these clues are to be followed it will be necessary to raze anywhere from four to a dozen buildings; the coffin may be found at the first excavation or it may be necessary to turn over the whole site of the ancient cemetery. Jones was buried in a lead coffin, a very unusual thing at that time, and it is thought his remains may be identified if found.

The ambassador has suggested to the president that to defray the cost of searching for the remains of John Paul Jones congress be asked to appropriate a fund of $35,000 and the president will probably approve this recommendation.

AGED COUPLE ASPHYXIATED.

Overcome by Fumes From a Gas Stove in Their Home.

Pittsburg, Feb. 9.—Dr. A. C. Elliott and his wife, an aged couple living at Emsworth, were asphyxiated in their home some time during Sunday, but the fact was not known until Wednesday night. It is surmised that because of the gas shortage on Sunday the couple shut off the damper in the kitchen gas stove and huddled up close to it to get the benefit of all the heat possible and when the full pressure came on they were overcome by the fumes, and died where they sat.

Only One Rebel Leader Escapes.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 9.—All of the rebels have been captured or have surrendered except one military leader. Upward of 200 prisoners were transferred Wednesday by the police to a warship and are awaiting trial by a council of war which has been already constituted.

Kills a Woman and Himself.

Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 9.—Andrew Goudy, a Baltimore and Ohio engineer, Wednesday night shot and killed Mrs. Leonora Moore and then killed himself.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

THREE MEN KILLED AND SEVERAL OTHERS ARE INJURED IN A MICHIGAN MINE.

FOUR OR FIVE MEN ENTOMBED

ALL HOPE OF RESCUING THOSE IN THE MINE ABANDONED BY THE SEARCHERS.

Calumet, Mich., Feb. 9.—Ten thousand pounds of dynamite stored underground in a magazine at the eighth level of No. 3 shaft of the North Kearsarge branch of the Osceola Consolidated mine, exploded Wednesday, killing several men, three of whom have been accounted for, and injuring many others. The force of the explosion was felt for miles around and men working in other portions of the mine some distance from the scene of the explosion, were knocked down by the concussion. The cause of the disaster is shrouded in mystery and may never be discovered, as William Pollitt, Jr., the man who was in charge of the powder, was blown into thousands of pieces, no tangible trace of him having been found up to a late hour.

The known dead: William Pollitt, Jr., single, aged twenty-five, blown to atoms; Mathew Kaskala, miner, blown to pieces; Peter Kulpa, trapper, suffocated, aged thirty-five, married, leaves a wife and three children.

The more seriously injured are: William Wills, Peter Putala, Gus Donald, Joseph Novie, Wilford Humphrey, Ben Orchard and John Noviet.

As soon as the explosion occurred the mining officials organized a rescue party who penetrated the scene of the catastrophe by descending into No. 1 shaft and crossing over on one of the lower levels.

The force of the explosion tore out the plates of shaft No. 2 at the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth levels, twisted the ship rails and tore them from the stringers, and created havoc in general.

Several Men Rescued.

The relief party succeeded in rescuing several men who were taken to the surface as soon as possible, where they were revived in the open air. Six members of the rescue party succumbed to the deadly gases and fumes and were taken to the mouth of the shaft and resuscitated.

Fortunately, only two miners and a party of three trappers were working on the level at which the dynamite was stored when the explosion occurred, or otherwise the list of dead and maimed would have been appallingly large. While no trace of Pollitt and Kaskala has been found so far, it is impossible they could have survived the terrible blast, as they were in the immediate vicinity. The only body recovered is that of Kulpa, who was suffocated by the poisonous gases.

The dynamite was placed underground in the magazine so as to be near to the men and save delay when blasting was to be done. It consisted of 200 boxes of fifty pounds each.

The Osceola Consolidated Mining company will suffer a large loss as it will be impossible to resume operations at that point for some time.

A searching party has returned from the sixth level, as it is impossible to penetrate further. The company is sealing shafts to smother the fire, which may be raging with great fury, as the gas is very thick. Four or five men are believed to be under ground, if they have not succumbed to gas. All hope is cut off, as it will be impossible to reach the surface.

These facts were reported to the state department at the time and there the matter has rested until recently.

Not long ago, however, Mr. Porter came into possession of some additional information which warranted the hope that the sailor's skeleton now reposes beneath the foundations or within the cellar of some of the dilapidated old flats which stand on the ground once occupied by the cemetery. If these clues are to be followed it will be necessary to raze anywhere from four to a dozen buildings; the coffin may be found at the first excavation or it may be necessary to turn over the whole site of the ancient cemetery. Jones was buried in a lead coffin, a very unusual thing at that time, and it is thought his remains may be identified if found.

The ambassador has suggested to the president that to defray the cost of searching for the remains of John Paul Jones congress be asked to appropriate a fund of $25,000 and the president will probably approve this recommendation.

AGED COUPLE ASPHYXIATED.

Overcome by Fumes From a Gas Stove in Their Home.

Pittsburg, Feb. 9.—Dr. A. C. Elliott and his wife, an aged couple living at Emsworth, were asphyxiated in their home some time during Sunday, but the fact was not known until Wednesday night. It is surmised that because of the gas shortage on Sunday the couple shut off the damper in the kitchen gas stove and huddled up close to it to get the benefit of all the heat possible and when the full pressure came on they were overcome by the fumes, and died where they sat.

Only One Rebel Leader Escapes.

HAD RECEIVED A DIVINE CALL.

Chicago Girl Offers Herself as a Sacrifice to a New Religion.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Miss Frances Wakley of 6309 Lowe avenue, believing that she had received a divine call to offer herself to a sacrifice, Wednesday poured oil over her clothing and a pile of torn books and papers on which she stood, and set the whole on fire. She is now in the hospital so terribly burned that her recovery is deemed impossible. In the next room was the aged mother of the girl, paralyzed, listening to her daughter's voice, but unable to aid her in any way.

Miss Wakley, who is twenty-three years of age, had lately joined a secret religious cult, the nature of which none of her friends will divulge. It is believed that constant study of the new religion had unsettled her mind.

GUNBOAT NEWPORT REPORTED.

Disabled American War Vessel Heading for Norfolk.

New York, Feb. 9.—The Mallory line steamship Concho, in Wednesday from Galveston, on Tuesday passed the disabled United States gunboat Newport, which sailed from Boston a week ago for Santo Domingo. The Newport was reported as having lost her propeller at sea on Feb. 3. When passed by the Concho she was in latitude 36.20, longitude 75, and proceeding under sail, heading east northeast for Norfolk. She simply asked the Concho to report her.

MRS. CHADWICK PAID NO DUTY.

Brought in Jewels Valued at Eighty Thousand Dollars.

Cleveland, Feb. 9.—The customs authorities have located altogether jewels to the value of $80,000 brought into this country by Mrs. Chadwick upon which it is definitely known that she paid no duty. Of these valuables about $40,000 worth have been turned over to the customs officials by parties who held them.

PARTIAL STRIKE OF EMPLOYES AT PUTILOFF IRON WORKS AT ST. PETERSBURG.

INVOLVES QUESTION OF PAY

PRESENT TROUBLE ARISES FROM DEMAND OF MEN FOR WAGES WHILE ON STRIKE.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 9.—A partial strike at the Putiloff iron works and the complete tie up of the St. Petersburg car factory, gave rise to rumors Wednesday of a general recrudescence of the strike movement here, but the strike has not extended to other establishments and the success of the manager of the Putiloff works in preventing the great body of workmen from following the example of their comrades in two of the shops who had walked out, gives basis for hope of an amicable settlement. The present trouble involves the questions of pay for the time the men were out on strike and the eight-hour day, which were discussed at a meeting of employers Wednesday night. The employers came to no absolute decision but determined to adopt a conciliatory attitude. They probably will concede a nine-hour day, which will satisfy the employees pending general legislation on the matter of an eight-hour day, which will be binding upon employers throughout Russia.

At present six government factories and thirty private establishments are working fifty-seven hours or less weekly and twenty-eight large enterprises more than fifty-seven hours. The question of allowance for time on strike is not easy of settlement. Some works, including the American Westinghouse company, have voluntarily paid their men

they did not work, but several large establishments, including the St. Petersburg car factory and the Putiloff iron works, refused to do so, claiming that it would swallow up the most of their yearly profits. The Putiloff works, where the strike originated and was of double duration, would be especially hard hit, as the strike pay roll would amount to $130,000.

The St. Petersburg car factory already has paid three days but is unwilling to concede more.

Governor General Trepoft does not wish to interfere, this question being a purely economic one, but he has intimated to the masters that it is desirable that they should reach a settlement with their men. It is hoped, in view of the conciliatory attitude of the masters and the apparent readiness of the men to listen to argument, that another crisis will be avoided.

The interrogation of Maxim Gorky by the police prosecutor was begun Wednesday in the court of justice, to which he was driven in a carriage from the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul.

Gorky is quite well and is subjected to only the ordinary regulations of prisoners in fortresses, which require the wearing of a special garb to prevent the possibility of their escape.

Mme. Gorky is not deeply worried. After her interview with her husband Tuesday, she said that her husband was not anxious to write.

"What is the use of writing," he told her, "when, according to the fortress regulations, what I write must be burned when I leave?"

WISCONSIN GIRL MISSING.

Mysteriously Disappears From a College in Michigan.

Berrien Springs, Mich., Feb. 9.—Miss Olive Templeton, eighteen years old, has disappeared from the Adventist college in this village.

Miss Templeton was sent from chapel exercises last Thursday morning. Since that time no trace of her has been found.

Sheriff Tennant has detailed a score of deputies on the case and St. Joseph river was vainly dragged for several miles in the hope of finding her body.

Miss Templeton is a daughter of a wealthy business man at Sawyer, Wis., and came to the college last September. Her father, in a telegram to the sheriff, says he sent his daughter to college so she could escape the advances of a young man.

One belief is that this young man has abducted the girl or murdered her. In Miss Templeton's room was found all of her clothing, even to the hat and cloak she was accustomed to wear, her money and other belongings.

Another theory advanced to account for Miss Templeton's disappearance is that in a fit of homesickness she deliberately walked out into zero weather, inadequately clothed, with the idea of freezing to death.

ELECTORAL VOTE CANVASSED.

Quadrennial Function of Congress Attracted a Large Crowd.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Although the result of the presidential election was known early in the evening of Nov. 8, it was not until Wednesday when the senate and house met in joint session that Theodore Roosevelt and Charles W. Fairbanks were officially declared to be the elected president and vice president respectively for four years beginning March 4, 1905. This quadrennial function of congress attracted to the house chamber, where the electoral vote was canvassed, an immense gathering, prominent among the auditors being Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt, the president's sister, Mrs. Cowles, and Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, wife of the vice president-elect. President Pro Tempore Frye of the senate, presided and delivered the announcement of the result of the count, which showed that Roosevelt and Fairbanks received 336 electoral votes and Parker and Davis 140. The whole proceeding consumed exactly fifty minutes, thereby establishing a new record in counting the electoral vote.

For two hours preceding and for three hours following the joint proceedings the question of freight rate regulation held full sway. As on the previous days of the debate, both Republicans and Democrats claimed the credit for originating the present legislation.

KEARNS ENTERS A DISCLAIMER.

He Did Not Vote in Favor of Separate Statehood for New Mexico.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The senate Wednesday received from Mr. Kearns a disclaimer of the vote in favor of separate statehood for New Mexico, which the records for Tuesday credited him with. He said that he had been misunderstood by the clerks and he had voted against the provision. Several senators corroborated his statement, but a number asserted that they had understood him to vote for the amendment.

The senate spent almost an hour in connection with the house of representatives is canvassing the presidential vote and the remainder of the session was devoted to executive business.

MAKES SIGNIFICANT SPEECH.

Norwegian Premier Discusses the Consular Question.

Christiania, Feb. 9.—In the storthing Wednesday Dr. Hagerup, the Norwegian premier, made a significant speech, announcing the failure of the negotiations between Sweden and Norway on the question of separate consular representation. He said a most serious situation was created. The people of Norway were animated by a desire to continue the good understanding with neighboring nations; but the present conditions of the union are indefensible and cannot continue without endangering these relations. It was the duty, therefore, he said, of the storthing to make an unrestricted provision for the assumption by Norway of the national and international position to which she is entitled as a sovereign state, and more free working forms of co-operation must be considered if the existing bonds of union between Sweden and Norway are to continue. Premier Hagerup asked for the full co-operation of the storthing with the cabinet, which he said was prepared to resign if remaining in office was calculated to place difficulties in the way of co-operation of the various parties.

MOST DEADLY POISON KNOWN.

Curare Believed to Have Caused Death of Hoch's Wives.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Curare, the most subtle and deadly poison known to modern science, is believed by Dr. Joseph Springer, formerly coroner's physician, to have caused the death of Johann Hoch's wives.

Dr. Springer is convinced the fatal drug was probably administered by means of engagement or wedding rings.

"By turning the inner edge of the ring," said Dr. Springer, "or making it rough or sharp in any manner, applying the curare on the rough edge and then slipping the ring on the finger so as to cause the slightest abrasion of the skin, death would follow."

"It would only be necessary for the slightest quantity of the poison to reach the blood. One sixteenth of a grain of curare is fatal."

New York, Feb. 9.—In custody of a Chicago detective Hoch started for Chicago on the Lackawanna train late Wednesday.

WORST BLIZZARD OF THE YEAR.

Fierce Storm in Nebraska Causes Great Suffering.

Omaha, Feb. 9.—Specials to newspapers and reports to the weather bureau from northern and western sections of Nebraska, tell of the worst blizzard of the year, which is said to be moving southwest. Already a foot of snow covers the greater part of Nebraska and it is probable that a bad blizzard on the ranges at this time will result in great suffering and loss of cattle and sheep.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

THREE MEN KILLED AND SEVERAL OTHERS ARE INJURED IN A MICHIGAN MINE.

FOUR OR FIVE MEN ENTOMBED

ALL HOPE OF RESCUING THOSE IN THE MINE ABANDONED BY THE SEARCHERS.

Calumet, Mich., Feb. 9.—Ten thousand pounds of dynamite stored underground in a magazine at the eighth level of No. 3 shaft of the North Kearsarge branch of the Osceola Consolidated mine, exploded Wednesday, killing several men, three of whom have been accounted for, and injuring many others. The force of the explosion was felt for miles around and men working in other portions of the mine some distance from the scene of the explosion, were knocked down by the concussion. The cause of the disaster is shrouded in mystery and may never be discovered, as William Pollitt, Jr., the man who was in charge of the powder, was blown into thousands of pieces, no tangible trace of him having been found up to a late hour.

The known dead: William Pollitt, Jr., single, aged twenty-five, blown to atoms; Mathew Kaskala, miner, blown to pieces; Peter Kulpa, trapper, suffocated, aged thirty-five, married, leaves a wife and three children. The more seriously injured are: William Wills, Peter Putala, Gus Donald, Joseph Novie, Wilford Humphrey, Ben Orchard and John Noviet. As soon as the explosion occurred the mining officials organized a rescue party who penetrated the scene of the catastrophe by descending into No. 1 shaft and crossing over on one of the lower levels.

The force of the explosion tore out the plates of shaft No. 2 at the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth levels, twisted the ship rails and tore them from the stringers, and created havoc in general.

Several Men Rescued.

The relief party succeeded in rescuing several men who were taken to the surface as soon as possible, where they were revived in the open air. Six members of the rescue party succumbed to the deadly gases and fumes and were taken to the mouth of the shaft and resuscitated.

Fortunately, only two miners and a party of three trappers were working on the level at which the dynamite was stored when the explosion occurred, or otherwise the list of dead and maimed would have been appallingly large. While no trace of Pollitt and Kaskala has been found so far, it is impossible they could have survived the terrible blast, as they were in the immediate vicinity. The only body recovered is that of Kulpa, who was suffocated by the poisonous gases.

The dynamite was placed under ground in the magazine so as to be near to the men and save delay when blasting was to be done. It consisted of 200 boxes of fifty pounds each.

The Osceola Consolidated Mining company will suffer a large loss as it will be impossible to resume operations at that point for some time.

A searching party has returned from the sixth level, as it is impossible to penetrate further. The company is sealing shafts to smother the fire, which may be raging with great fury, as the gas is very thick. Four or five men are believed to be under ground, if they have not succumbed to gas. All hope is cut off, as it will be impossible to reach the surface.

LEGISLATOR IS EXPELLED.

Frank D. Comerford's Name Stricken From Rolls of Illinois House.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 9.—Frank D. Comerford, a representative from the Second senatorial district of Cook county to the forty-fourth general assembly, was Wednesday expelled as a member of that body and his name stricken from the rolls of the house of assembly. His expulsion was the climax of a series of sensational charges of corruption and attempted bribery made by Mr. Comerford against members of the Illinois legislature, which were investigated by a special committee of the house appointed for that purpose, which found after protracted sittings and listening to a great mass of testimony, that the charges brought by Mr. Comerford were utterly unfounded. This committee reported its findings to the house and Comerford's expulsion followed after an exciting debate.

Woman Burned to Death.

Cincinnati, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Frank Corry was burned to death by an explosion of a coal oil lamp at her home Wednesday night. Two hundred dollars which the woman carried about her neck was destroyed by the flames and diamonds valued at $1,000 which the woman wore were lost during the excitement.

HUSBAND DEAD AND WIFE DYING.

Case of Supposed Murder and Suicide in South Dakota.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Feb. 9.—News reached here of a double tragedy on a farm twelve miles north of Sioux Falls. The victims are Lars Olson, a farmer, who is dead, and his wife, who is expected to die at any time.

Olson, who was an elderly man, recently married a young woman and their family life was marred by frequent quarrels. It is supposed Olson mortally wounded his wife in an effort to kill her and then killed himself.

Detective Pleads Guilty.

Denver, Feb. 9.—City Detective William H. Green pleaded guilty in the criminal court Wednesday to the charge of "stuffing" a ballot box at the election of November 6, 1904. It was alleged that Green, with others, cast 587 fraudulent ballots in the precinct known as "Green county." Green was sentenced to jail for ninety days.

REMAINS OF JOHN PAUL JONES.

Believed to Have Been Discovered in Paris.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Ambassador Porter has some reason to believe that he at last has discovered the remains of John Paul Jones. Ever since he has been in Paris Mr. Porter, ably seconded by Arthur Bailly-Blanchard, secretary of embassy, has been following every clue that has fallen in his way in the effort to locate the remains of this peerless American sailor. About four years ago one of the strongest of these clues led to complete discouragement. It indicated that the remains of John Paul Jones, who died in Paris, had been interred in a small urban cemetery, but a search for this cemetery disclosed the fact that it had been abandoned early in the last century and that its site was covered with buildings, leaving little hope that any remains of corpses interred there could be found. These facts were reported to the state department at the time and there the matter has rested until recently.

Not long ago, however, Mr. Porter came into possession of some additional information which warranted the hope that the sailor's skeleton now reposes beneath the foundations or within the cellar of some of the dilapidated old flats which stand on the ground once occupied by the cemetery. If these clues are to be followed it will be necessary to raze anywhere from four to a dozen buildings; the coffin may be found at the first excavation or it may be necessary to turn over the whole site of the ancient cemetery. Jones was buried in a lead coffin, a very unusual thing at that time, and it is thought his remains may be identified if found.

The ambassador has suggested to the president that to defray the cost of searching for the remains of John Paul Jones congress be asked to appropriate a fund of $35,000 and the president will probably approve this recommendation.

FINE MUST BE REFUNDED.

Porto Rican Wins Case Against the United States.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The United States court of claims has decided the Porto Rican customs case of Narciso Basso against the United States, holding that the fine of $1,500 collected from Basso for smuggling goods into Porto Rico was illegally collected and must be refunded. In July, 1899, Basso was arraigned, tried and convicted of bringing goods into Porto Rico without payment of duty and was fined $1,500 and sentenced to one month's imprisonment. The fine was paid under protest and action was begun in the United States court of claims to recover the amount. The court in effect holds that the law under which Basso was convicted was not extended to Porto Rico until May 19, 1900, nearly a year after the offense was alleged to have been committed and hence the Porto Rican court had not at that time any jurisdiction of the case.

RUSSIAN CATECHISM.

How Muscovite Children Are Taught to Revere Their Ruler.

THE CZAR GOD'S VICEGERENT.

Rebellion Against the Emperor is Rebellion Against God and Will Be Eternally Punished, According to the Russian Creed—Service to the Czar Considered Absolutely Obligatory.

The Rev. J. Stewart Smith, pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal church in Kansas City, Mo., has a copy of the catechism taught in all the schools of Russia and Poland, and after reading what the czar's subjects learn as children their temerity in rebelling against Nicholas may be the better understood, says the Kansas City Times. According to this creed, not only are they resisting the head of the Russian government, but they are taking up arms against the representative of God on earth, for which they shall suffer dire and eternal punishment.

Father Smith secured the copy of the catechism from a Polish priest who had escaped from Siberia, and Father Smith was enjoined to the strictest secrecy as to the source of his information, the priest fearing the vengeance of the Russian government upon his relatives in Poland.

The first question in the catechism asks in what light the authority of the czar is to be considered with reference to the spirit of Christianity. The answer is as follows:

As proceeding direct from God.

The second question and answer, which bear upon the first, are:

How is this proved by the nature of things?

It is the will of God that men live in society; hence the various relations that constitute society, which for its better security is divided into parts called nations. The government of these is entrusted to a prince, king or emperor, or, in other words, to a supreme ruler. We see, then, that as man exists in conformity to the will of God society emanates from the divine will, and more especially the supreme power and authority of our lord and master, the czar.

The framers of the catechism seem to have had in mind the prevention of some such uprising as that now in progress in St. Petersburg when they wrote these passages for the youth of the nation to learn:

How are irreverence and infidelity to the emperor to be considered in reference to God?

As the most heinous sin, the most frightful criminality.

Does religion, then, forbid us to rebel and overthrow the government of the emperor?

We are interdicted from doing so at all times and under all circumstances.

The absolute subservience expected of his subjects by the czar is shown in the answer to a question as to whether or not the service of the emperor is obligatory. The answer is:

Absolutely so. We should, if required, sacrifice ourselves in compliance with his will, both in a civil and military capacity, and in whatever manner he deems expedient.

The supposed divine nature of the czar is emphasized in the answer to a question concerning the "supernatural revealed motives" for the worship of the emperor. The answer to the question is:

The supernatural revealed motives are that the emperor is the vicegerent and minister of God, to execute the divine commands; and, consequently, disobedience to the emperor is disobedience to God himself; that God will reward us in the world to come for the worship and obedience we render the emperor and punish us severely to all eternity should we disobey and neglect to worship him. Moreover, God commands us to love and obey from the inmost recesses of the heart every authority, and particularly the emperor, not from worldly considerations, but from apprehension of the final judgment.

The final paragraph of the catechism reads:

Such is the doctrine of the church, confirmed by practice, as to the worship and fidelity due to the omnipotent emperor of Russia, the minister and vicegerent of God.

Speech Restored by Cold.

A miraculous cure has recently been effected by the cold weather at Paulhaquet, Auvergne, in France, says the Paris correspondent of the London Chronicle. John Rougier, fifty-four years of age, an agricultural laborer, lost his speech in 1887 after a severe attack of typhoid fever. At this time he was a parish schoolteacher and naturally was compelled to resign his position and seek other work. A few days ago, on going to work as usual, he was suddenly seized with faintness owing to the extreme cold and would have been frozen to death had not some passerby come to his assistance and restored him to consciousness. It was then found, to the great surprise of every one, that he had regained his powers of speech. The doctors of the district have forwarded a report of this extraordinary case to the faculty in Paris.

A Water Observation Boat.

Captain J. Larsen, a sailor on the great lakes, recently received patents on a new form of pleasure boat, says the American Inventor. The boat is supplied with a glass bottom, and under the bottom is an electric light, which will illuminate the water and the bed of the stream for some distance around. A hooded reflector makes it possible to sit comfortably in the boat and witness the curious things in the water below with great ease, and pictures may be taken also by means of a mirror. The captain has in his possession a number of photographs which were taken by this means, and these are said to be quite satisfactory, although they were made when the water was clouded with dirt washed down into it.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

LONDON BIOSCOPE COMPANY.

The London Bioscope company will be the attraction at the Brainerd opera house tonight and tomorrow night. This company was here last year and pleased a very large audience each night for three performances. The animated views are the best that are shown in this country, some of the special series alone being worth the price of admission to the evening's performance. They are all graphic and interesting, thoroughly up-to-date and never fail to interest and instruct. The company shows something like 10,000 views during the evening. Popular prices will be charged, ranging from 25 to 50 cents. Seats now selling.

THE VIRGINIAN.

The name of Kirk La Shelle has long been familiar to the better class of theatre goers as a manager whose offerings are invariably of the highest calibre. His name has also appeared as the author of two comic operas. His first effort in serious dramatic work will be seen here soon when "The Virginian" comes to the Brainerd opera house. Owen Wister's story of this title has been dramatized by Mr. Wister and Mr. La Shelle, and Mr. La Shelle's connection with the play as manager and co-author will stand for a great deal.

MR. DANIEL SULLY.

Mr. Daniel Sully appeared at the Brainerd opera house last night in his new play "Our Pastor" and it was the best thing that Mr. Sully has attempted in his whole stage career. The play is pleasing, and Mr. Sully is supported by a very capable company. The part suited Mr. Sully admirably and he was applauded by the audience from start to finish.

ALL BADLY FROST-BITTEN.

Captain, Passengers and Crew of the Damara Reach Pleasant Point.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 9.—After battling for twelve hours in an open boat with the temperature 2 below zero and a mighty gale lashing the sea, Captain Gorst, three passengers and ten of the crew of the ill-fated Furness liner Damara have reached Pleasant Point in safety. The men were badly frost-bitten and exhausted, some of them being so benumbed from the cold that they had to be lifted out of their seats.

The landing was effected with the greatest difficulty and all in the boat were thoroughly drenched by the big breakers. Every person was encased with thick ice from head to foot. It is not known whether or not any of them will succumb.

Captain Gorst said the Damara foundered at 10 a. m. Tuesday. They had stood by her for six hours in the lifeboat and it was only when the steamer went down that they pulled away.

A Water Candlestick.

A glass of water makes a fine emergency candlestick. Weight one end of the candle with a nail just large enough to hold the candle in the water so that the water touches its top edge, but does not touch the wick, and then light the candle. It will burn until the last vestige of wick is gone and the flame will not flicker. The melted tallow that runs down but serves to hold the candle more stationary.—Blacksmith and Wheelwright.

Winter coughs are apt to result in consumption if neglected. They can be soon broken up by using Foley's Honey and Tar. H. P. Dunn & Co.

FINE MUST BE REFUNDED.

Porto Rican Wins Case Against the United States.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The United States court of claims has decided the Porto Rican customs case of Narciso Basso against the United States, holding that the fine of $1,500 collected from Basso for smuggling goods into Porto Rico was illegally collected and must be refunded. In July, 1899, Basso was arraigned, tried and convicted of bringing goods into Porto Rico without payment of duty and was fined $1,500 and sentenced to one month's imprisonment. The fine was paid under protest and action was begun in the United States court of claims to recover the amount. The court in effect holds that the law under which Basso was convicted was not extended to Porto Rico until May 19, 1900, nearly a year after the offense was alleged to have been committed and hence the Porto Rican court had not at that time any jurisdiction of the case.

RUSSIAN CATECHISM.

How Muscovite Children Are Taught to Revere Their Ruler.

THE CZAR GOD'S VICEGERENT.

Rebellion Against the Emperor Is Rebellion Against God and Will Be Eternally Punished, According to the Russian Creed—Service to the Czar Considered Absolutely Obligatory.

The Rev. J. Stewart Smith, pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal church in Kansas City, Mo., has a copy of the catechism taught in all the schools of Russia and Poland, and after reading what the czar's subjects learn as children their temerity in rebelling against Nicholas may be the better understood, says the Kansas City Times. According to this creed, not only are they resisting the head of the Russian government, but they are taking up arms against the representative of God on earth, for which they shall suffer dire and eternal punishment.

Father Smith secured the copy of the catechism from a Polish priest who had escaped from Siberia, and Father Smith was enjoined to the strictest secrecy as to the source of his information, the priest fearing the vengeance of the Russian government upon his relatives in Poland.

The first question in the catechism asks in what light the authority of the czar is to be considered with reference to the spirit of Christianity. The answer is as follows:

As proceeding direct from God.
The second question and answer, which bear upon the first, are:

How is this proved by the nature of things?
It is the will of God that men live in society; hence the various relations that constitute society, which for its better security is divided into parts called nations. The government of these is intrusted to a prince, king or emperor, or, in other words, to a supreme ruler. We see, then, that as man exists in conformity to the will of God society emanates from the divine will, and more especially the supreme power and authority of our lord and master, the czar.

The framers of the catechism seem to have had in mind the prevention of some such uprising as that now in progress in St. Petersburg when they wrote these passages for the youth of the nation to learn:

How is irreverence and infidelity to the emperor to be considered in reference to God?

As the most heinous sin, the most frightful criminality.
Does religion, then, forbid us to rebel and overthrow the government of the emperor?

We are interdicted from doing so at all times and under all circumstances.

The absolute subservience expected of his subjects by the czar is shown in the answer to a question as to whether or not the service of the emperor is obligatory. The answer is:

Absolutely so. We should, if required, sacrifice ourselves in compliance with his will, both in a civil and military capacity, and in whatever manner he deems expedient.

The supposed divine nature of the czar is emphasized in the answer to a question concerning the "supernatural revealed motives" for the worship of the emperor. The answer to the question is:

The supernatural revealed motives are that the emperor is the vicegerent and minister of God, to execute the divine commands; and, consequently, disobedience to the emperor is disobedience to God himself; that God will reward us in the world to come for the worship and obedience we render the emperor and punish us severely to all eternity should we disobey and neglect to worship him. Moreover, God commands us to love and obey from the inmost recesses of the heart every authority, and particularly the emperor, not from worldly considerations, but from apprehension of the final judgment.

The final paragraph of the catechism reads:

Such is the doctrine of the church, confirmed by practice, as to the worship and fidelity due to the omnipotent emperor of Russia, the minister and vicegerent of God.

Speech Restored by Cold.

A miraculous cure has recently been effected by the cold weather at Paulhaquet, Auvergne, in France, says the Paris correspondent of the London Chronicle. John Rougier, fifty-four years of age, an agricultural laborer, lost his speech in 1887 after a severe attack of typhoid fever. At this time he was a parish schoolteacher and naturally was compelled to resign his position and seek other work. A few days ago, on going to work as usual, he was suddenly seized with faintness owing to the extreme cold and would have been frozen to death had not some passersby come to his assistance and restored him to consciousness. It was then found, to the great surprise of every one, that he had regained his powers of speech. The doctors of the district have forwarded a report of this extraordinary case to the faculty in Paris.

Costly Fire at Columbus.

Columbus, O., Feb. 9.—Fire which started Wednesday on the uppermost floor of a seven-story brick building owned and occupied by the Columbus Merchandise company, caused a property loss estimated at $190,000, covered by insurance.

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent this development of fatal disease if taken in time. H. P. Dunn & Co.

RUSSIAN CATECHISM.

How Muscovite Children Are Taught to Revere Their Ruler.

THE CZAR GOD'S VICEGERENT.

Rebellion Against the Emperor is Rebellion Against God and Will Be Eternally Punished, According to the Russian Creed—Service to the Czar Considered Absolutely Obligatory.

The Rev. J. Stewart Smith, pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal church in Kansas City, Mo., has a copy of the catechism taught in all the schools of Russia and Poland, and after reading what the czar's subjects learn as children their temerity in rebelling against Nicholas may be the better understood, says the Kansas City Times. According to this creed, not only are they resisting the head of the Russian government, but they are taking up arms against the representative of God on earth, for which they shall suffer dire and eternal punishment.

Father Smith secured the copy of the catechism from a Polish priest who had escaped from Siberia, and Father Smith was enjoined to the strictest secrecy as to the source of his information, the priest fearing the vengeance of the Russian government upon his relatives in Poland.

The first question in the catechism asks in what light the authority of the czar is to be considered with reference to the spirit of Christianity. The answer is as follows:

As proceeding direct from God.
The second question and answer, which bear upon the first, are:

How is this proved by the nature of things?

It is the will of God that men live in society; hence the various relations that constitute society, which for its better security is divided into parts called nations. The government of these is intrusted to a prince, king or emperor, or, in other words, to a supreme ruler. We see, then, that as man exists in conformity to the will of God society emanates from the divine will, and more especially the supreme power and authority of our lord and master, the czar.

The framers of the catechism seem to have had in mind the prevention of some such uprising as that now in progress in St. Petersburg when they wrote these passages for the youth of the nation to learn:

How are irreverence and infidelity to the emperor to be considered in reference to God?

As the most heinous sin, the most frightful criminality.
Does religion, then, forbid us to rebel and overthrow the government of the emperor?

We are interdicted from doing so at all times and under all circumstances.

The absolute subservience expected of his subjects by the czar is shown in the answer to a question as to whether or not the service of the emperor is obligatory. The answer is:

Absolutely so. We should, if required, sacrifice ourselves in compliance with his will, both in a civil and military capacity, and in whatever manner he deems expedient.

The supposed divine nature of the czar is emphasized in the answer to a question concerning the "supernatural revealed motives" for the worship of the emperor. The answer to the question is:

The supernatural revealed motives are that the emperor is the vicegerent and minister of God, to execute the divine commands; and, consequently, disobedience to the emperor is disobedience to God himself; that God will reward us in the world to come for the worship and obedience we render the emperor and punish us severely to all eternity should we disobey and neglect to worship him. Moreover, God commands us to love and obey from the inmost recesses of the heart every authority, and particularly the emperor, not from worldly considerations, but from apprehension of the final judgment.

The final paragraph of the catechism reads:

Such is the doctrine of the church, confirmed by practice, as to the worship and fidelity due to the omnipotent emperor of Russia, the minister and vicegerent of God.

Speech Restored by Cold.

A miraculous cure has recently been effected by the cold weather at Paulhaquet, Auvergne, in France, says the Paris correspondent of the London Chronicle. John Rougier, fifty-four years of age, an agricultural laborer, lost his speech in 1887 after a severe attack of typhoid fever. At this time he was a parish schoolteacher and naturally was compelled to resign his position and seek other work. A few days ago, on going to work as usual, he was suddenly seized with faintness owing to the extreme cold and would have been frozen to death had not some passersby come to his assistance and restored him to consciousness. It was then found, to the great surprise of every one, that he had regained his powers of speech. The doctors of the district have forwarded a report of this extraordinary case to the faculty in Paris.

A Water Observation Boat.

Captain J. Larsen, a sailor on the great lakes, recently received patents on a new form of pleasure boat, says the American Inventor. The boat is supplied with a glass bottom, and under the bottom is an electric light, which will illuminate the water and the bed of the stream for some distance around. A hooded reflector makes it possible to sit comfortably in the boat and witness the curious things in the water below with great ease, and pictures may be taken also by means of a mirror. The captain has in his possession a number of photographs which were taken by this means, and these are said to be quite satisfactory, although they were made when the water was clouded with dirt washed down into it.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

LONDON BIOSCOPE COMPANY.

The London Bioscope company will be the attraction at the Brainerd opera house tonight and tomorrow night. This company was here last year and pleased a very large audience each night for three performances. The animated views are the best that are shown in this country, some of the special series alone being worth the price of admission to the evening's performance. They are all graphic and interesting, thoroughly up-to-date and never fail to interest and instruct. The company shows something like 10,000 views during the evening. Popular prices will be charged, ranging from 25 to 50 cents. Seats now selling.

THE VIRGINIAN.

The name of Kirk La Shelle has long been familiar to the better class of theatre goers as a manager whose offerings are invariably of the highest calibre. His name has also appeared as the author of two comic operas. His first effort in serious dramatic work will be seen here soon when "The Virginian" comes to the Brainerd opera house. Owen Wister's story of this title has been dramatized by Mr. Wister and Mr. La Shelle, and Mr. La Shelle's connection with the play as manager and co-author will stand for a great deal.

MR. DANIEL SULLY.

Mr. Daniel Sully appeared at the Brainerd opera house last night in his new play "Our Pastor" and it was the best thing that Mr. Sully has attempted in his whole stage career. The play is pleasing, and Mr. Sully is supported by a very capable company. The part suited Mr. Sully admirably and he was applauded by the audience from start to finish.

ALL BADLY FROST-BITTEN.

Captain, Passengers and Crew of the Damara Reach Pleasant Point.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 9.—After battling for twelve hours in an open boat with the temperature 2 below zero and a mighty gale lashing the sea, Captain Gorst, three passengers and ten of the crew of the ill-fated Furness liner Damara have reached Pleasant Point in safety. The men were badly frost-bitten and exhausted, some of them being so benumbed from the cold that they had to be lifted out of their seats. The landing was effected with the greatest difficulty and all in the boat were thoroughly drenched by the big breakers. Every person was encased with thick ice from head to foot. It is not known whether or not any of them will succumb.

Captain Gorst said the Damara foundered at 10 a. m. Tuesday. They had stood by her for six hours in the lifeboat and it was only when the steamer went down that they pulled away.

A Water Candlestick.

A glass of water makes a fine emergency candlestick. Weight one end of the candle with a nail just large enough to hold the candle in the water so that the water touches its top edge, but does not touch the wick, and then light the candle. It will burn until the last vestige of wick is gone and the flame will not flicker. The melted tallow that runs down but serves to hold the candle more stationary.—Blacksmith and Wheelwright.

Winter coughs are apt to result in consumption if neglected. They can be soon broken up by using Foley's Honey and Tar. H. P. Dunn & Co.

Farmers Organize Telephone Company.
The Cass County Telephone company
is being organized at Pequot, Cass county, the object being to erect lines that will connect the large farming communities in the southern part of the county with some of the villages. Five new connections have recently been made between Hazel Dell and Poplar, and
more than thirty phones are now in use.
When the phones were first put in, the
batteries were intended for only twenty-
five phones, so that it has been found
necessary to put in a switch to handle
the increasing business connected with this independent line. This switch is in the house of Captain Kelly at Motley,
who will act as "central" the next year.
The line will at once be extended from Motley to Pequot by the way of Leader.
The route from Leader will be by Graff's
postoffice, Jewell's and Hall's mills, east
to the home of R. M. Osterlund, north
to John Hylen's and the Loon Lake
schoolhouse and thence to Pequot.
From Osterlund's a branch will run
south to the town of Home Brook. This will be strictly a farmers line. Olaf
Olson, county superintendent of schools,
and W. H. Hallett are the principal promoters.

WAS DIVORCED
AND REMARRIED

Mrs. Long, Formerly Miss Gertie Caughie, Divorced and Married Same Month

MARRIED FORMER BRAINERDITE

At Janesville, Wis., Where She
Will Make Her Home in the Future.

On January 7 a decree of absolute divorce was granted to Mrs. Gertie Long from her husband, J. A. Long, on the ground of desertion. When the suit
was brought no answer was filed and no
appearance was made at all by the defendant, as it was generally understood
that he was agreeable to the separation.
It was a case of incompatibility from
the start and the suit and the subsequent event will be no surprise to the people of Brainerd.

Mrs. Long, two weeks from the time
she secured her divorce, was remarried
to W. J. Lawrence, who is also well known in this city, having traveled on
this territory for years for a liquor
house. He is now agent for the La
Crosse Brewing company at Janesville,
Wis., where the marriage occurred.
Mrs. Lawrence is here now packing her
household effects and will move to Janes-
ville at once.

Mrs. Lawrence was formerly Miss
Gertie Caughie and was raised
in this city. Mr. Long, her former husband, is superintendent of the Cross
Lake Logging company and is very well
known in northern Minnesota.

Washington, Feb. 9.—C. W. Post of Battle Creek, Mich., who has interested
himself largely in the establishment of a parcels post system, during the day filed with President Pro Tempore
Frye of the senate a petition for the expulsion of Senator Thomas C. Platt
from the senate. The petition is based on the assertion that Mr. Platt, as the executive head of the United States

spiracy to maintain identical rates

shipped over their lines and he asserts
that Mr. Platt has told representatives
of his that he will oppose all legisla-

ROMANCE IN REALITY

Young Twain Decide that Life Hath More
Bliss When Played With a Double
Hand and Not Alone

There was a romantic marriage in the city night before last and one which created some interest among a lot of young people in the city who are well
acquainted with the principals. Wm.
Colvert, a barber who works for J. H.
Welliver got a bee in his bonnet and as
he expressed it last night changed his mind very suddenly and decided that he would like to get married. A well known young lady of the city, Miss Edna Winters, was similarly inclined
and within a few moments after they met
on the night mentioned they were on the way to the court house to get a marriage license. Mr. Colvert called up
Clerk of Court W. A. M. Johnston and
asked him if he could be at his office at 7:30. He realized that it was asking considerable of him to be present at his sanctum at that hour but he told the genial clerk that it was a case of great urgency and intimated that he would explain things when he saw him. Mr. Johnston came down and issued the necessary documents to Colvert to marry Miss Winters.

The young twain then took the credentials and thought first of going to the revival meeting at the Baptist church and waiting for Rev. W. H.
Walker. They waited outside, however,
and after the meeting was over made arrangements with the pastor to tie the knot. This done Mr. and Mrs. Colvert left feeling merry and gay and went to the City hotel where they ate their wedding supper and remained until morning.

The real strain came yesterday when Colvert is said to have trembled like a leaf when the time came to break the news to the parents. A note was sent to her mother by the young lady and in the afternoon Mr. Colvert went over and had a talk with her. They explained
that it was a case of joy, joy, joy and they decided that to live aright in this world they must live together.

It is understood that all was forgiven
and with the blessings of the paternal head they were bade go in peace, and now Colvert thinks that the old saw,
"All's well that ends well," has a true
meaning and they have gone to live in a cosy suite of rooms over the Drapeau
confectionery store on Main street.

Representative of the Northern League
Will be Here to Look up Brainerd as Base Ball Town

There is now no question but that St.
Cloud will be in the Northern league this season. The magnates are willing to admit the Stearns county metropolis into the circuit and with that understanding promoters of the club are pushing matters rapidly and have already secured a number of players.

Brainerd is the next likely city to be admitted. Some of the members of the circuit committee will take a trip there on Saturday for the purpose of looking over the ground and perfecting arrangements. The scheme has a strong financial backing in Brainerd and from the present outlook there is no doubt but that city will join the league. The third new club that will most probably enter will be Wahpeton, N. D., and Breckenridge, Minn., in combination.
There is no inkling as yet as to the fourth club, but it will be known definitely within a few days. Representatives of the cities mentioned will be present at the meeting to be called at Fargo on February 18.—Duluth News-

INDICATES BUILDING OF ROAD

Minnesota & International Calls for Deeds of Right of Way from the Settlers.

The Bemidji Pioneer says that yesterday settlers living along the survey of the Minnesota & International received deeds from the company with the request for the signatures granting the company right of way from North-ome to Ripple. About 12 months ago the company asked the settlers what they demanded for the land and the deeds all run according to the terms
asked by the settlers at that time.

This action on the part of the company is a strong indication that the road will be extended at least to Ripple
this spring and summer. Two years ago when the road was built to North-ome, work was commenced on it within 60 days from the date that the settlers received the deeds for signature granting the company the right of way.

The survey calls for the building of about 32 miles of road from Northome to Ripple and about the same distance from Ripple to Koochiching.

Curiosity Shocked Him.

Our local rural route carrier, who seems to be somewhat of a curious turn of mind, sat in the Becker hotel last Sunday evening admiring the beauty of the Becker electric light and wondering what it was composed of. His curiosity finally got the better of his good judgment and forgetting for the moment the motto, "don't monkey with the band wagon," he brought forth his knife and cut into the insulation of one of the wires,
but he little thought that he was going to receive a kick harder than any government mule ever thought of. "How shocking." We understand that when he woke up the first thing he asked was
if the postal service had gone bankrupt.
After being informed that the government was still intact, he cast a suspicious glance at the remaining light and edged away as if that one might also take a notion to give him "one-a-punch."
The young man was not injured, however, but got what was coming to him out of the 240 volts carried on the system. He does not yet know just what the light is composed of, but thinks it must contain about equal parts of cus-siness and greased lightning. The neighbors say that his curiosity has been entirely satisfied.—Becker Record

Farmers Organize Telephone Company.

The Cass County Telephone company
is being organized at Pequot, Cass county, the object being to erect lines that will connect the large farming communities in the southern part of the county with some of the villages. Five new connections have recently been made
between Hazel Dell and Poplar, and
more than thirty phones are now in use.
When the phones were first put in, the
batteries were intended for only twenty-
five phones, so that it has been found
necessary to put in a switch to handle
the increasing business connected with
this independent line. This switch is in the house of Captain Kelly at Motley,
who will act as "central" the next year.
The line will at once be extended from
Motley to Pequot by the way of Leader.
The route from Leader will be by Graff's
postoffice, Jewell's and Hall's mills, east
to the home of R. M. Osterlund, north
to John Hylen's and the Loon Lake
schoolhouse and thence to Pequot.
From Osterlund's a branch will run
south to the town of Home Brook. This will be strictly a farmers line. Olaf
Olson, county superintendent of schools,
and W. H. Hallett are the principal promoters.

MARRIED FORMER BRAINERDITE

At Janesville, Wis., Where She
Will Make Her Home in
the Future.

On January 7 a decree of absolute
divorce was granted to Mrs. Gertie Long
from her husband, J. A. Long, on the ground of desertion. When the suit
was brought no answer was filed and no
appearance was made at all by the defendant, as it was generally understood
that he was agreeable to the separation.
It was a case of incompatibility from
the start and the suit and the subsequent event will be no surprise to the people of Brainerd.

Mrs. Long, two weeks from the time
she secured her divorce, was remarried
to W. J. Lawrence, who is also well known in this city, having traveled on
this territory for years for a liquor
house. He is now agent for the La
Crosse Brewing company at Janesville,
Wis., where the marriage occurred.
Mrs. Lawrence is here now packing her
household effects and will move to Janes-
ville at once.

Mrs. Lawrence was formerly Miss
Gertie Caughie and was raised
in this city. Mr. Long, her former husband, is superintendent of the Cross
Lake Logging company and is very well
known in northern Minnesota.

Michigan Man Files Petition Urging Removal of Senator T. C. Platt.

Washington, Feb. 9.—C. W. Post of Battle Creek, Mich., who has interested
himself largely in the establishment
of a parcels post system, during the
day filed with President Pro Tempore
Frye of the senate a petition for the
expulsion of Senator Thomas C. Platt
from the senate. The petition is based on the assertion that Mr. Platt, as the executive head of the United States
Express company, is a party to a conspiracy to maintain identical rates
among express companies for articles
shipped over their lines and he asserts
that Mr. Platt has told representatives
of his that he will oppose all legisla-

ROMANCE IN REALITY

Young Twain Decide that Life Hath More
Bliss When Played With a Double
Hand and Not Alone

There was a romantic marriage in the city night before last and one which
created some interest among a lot of young people in the city who are well
acquainted with the principals. Wm.
Colvert, a barber who works for J. H.
Welliver got a bee in his bonnet and as
he expressed it last night changed his mind very suddenly and decided that he would like to get married. A well known young lady of the city, Miss Edna Winters, was similarly inclined
and within a few moments after they met
on the night mentioned they were on
the way to the court house to get a marriage license. Mr. Colvert called up
Clerk of Court W. A. M. Johnston and
asked him if he could be at his office at 7:30. He realized that it was asking
considerable of him to be present at his
sanctum at that hour but he told the
genial clerk that it was a case of great urgency and intimated that he would explain things when he saw him. Mr.
Johnston came down and issued the necessary documents to Colvert to marry
Miss Winters.

The young twain then took the credentials and thought first of going to the revival meeting at the Baptist church and waiting for Rev. W. H.
Walker. They waited outside, however,
and after the meeting was over made
arrangements with the pastor to tie the knot. This done Mr. and Mrs. Culver left feeling merry and gay and went to
the City hotel where they ate their wedding supper and remained until morning.

The real strain came yesterday when Culver is said to have trembled like a
leaf when the time came to break the news to the parents. A note was sent to her mother by the young lady and in the afternoon Mr. Colvert went over and had a talk with her. They explained
that it was a case of joy, joy, joy and
they decided that to live aright in this
world they must live together.
It is understood that all was forgiven
and with the blessings of the paternal
head they were bade go in peace, and
now Colvert thinks that the old saw,
"All's well that ends well," has a true
meaning and they have gone to live in a
cosy suite of rooms over the Drapeau
confectionery store on Main street.

Farmers Organize Telephone Company.

The Cass County Telephone company is being organized at Pequot, Cass county, the object being to erect lines that will connect the large farming communities in the southern part of the county with some of the villages. Five new connections have recently been made between Hazel Dell and Poplar, and more than thirty phones are now in use. When the phones were first put in, the batteries were intended for only twenty-five phones, so that it has been found necessary to put in a switch to handle the increasing business connected with this independent line. This switch is in the house of Captain Kelly at Motley, who will act as "central" the next year. The line will at once be extended from Motley to Pequot by the way of Leader. The route from Leader will be by Graff's postoffice, Jewell's and Hall's mills, east to the home of R. M. Osterlund, north to John Hylen's and the Loon Lake schoolhouse and thence to Pequot. From Osterlund's a branch will run south to the town of Home Brook. This will be strictly a farmers line. Olaf Olson, county superintendent of schools, and W. H. Hallet are the principal promoters.

WAS DIVORCED AND REMARRIED

Mrs. Long, Formerly Miss Gertie Caughie, Divorced and Married Same Month

MARRIED FORMER BRAINERDITE

At Janesville, Wis., Where She Will Make Her Home in the Future.

On January 7 a decree of absolute divorce was granted to Mrs. Gertie Long from her husband, J. A. Long, on the ground of desertion. When the suit was brought no answer was filed and no appearance was made at all by the defendant, as it was generally understood that he was agreeable to the separation. It was a case of incompatibility from the start and the suit and the subsequent event will be no surprise to the people of Brainerd.

Mrs. Long, two weeks from the time she secured her divorce, was remarried to W. J. Lawrence, who is also well known in this city, having traveled on this territory for years for a liquor house. He is now agent for the La Crosse Brewing company at Janesville, Wis., where the marriage occurred. Mrs. Lawrence is here now packing her household effects and will move to Janesville at once.

Mrs. Lawrence was formerly Miss Gertie Caughie and was raised in this city. Mr. Long, her former husband, is superintendent of the Cross Lake Logging company and is very well known in northern Minnesota.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight, to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease. As Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by H. P. YOUNG LAD PICKED UP

David Winegard Picked up by the Police and Charge of Vagrancy Lodged Against Him

The police last night picked up a young lad who gave his name as David Winegard and this morning he was in the municipal court charged with vagrancy. The young fellow claims that he was sent to the state training school from Clay county. He says that one of the teachers at the state training school accused him of stealing $3 from her and he jumped his job. The case against him was continued for a few days until the matter can be investigated. The lad's parents are said to live at Moorhead.

ASKS HIS EXPULSION.

Michigan Man Files Petition Urging Removal of Senator T. C. Platt.

Washington, Feb. 9.—C. W. Post of Battle Creek, Mich., who has interested himself largely in the establishment of a parcels post system, during the day filed with President Pro Tempore Frye of the senate a petition for the expulsion of Senator Thomas C. Platt from the senate. The petition is based on the assertion that Mr. Platt, as the executive head of the United States Express company, is a party to a conspiracy to maintain identical rates among express companies for articles shipped over their lines and he asserts that Mr. Platt has told representatives of his that he will oppose all legislation injuriously affecting his company's interests.

ROMANCE IN REALITY

Young Twain Decide that Life Hath More Bliss When Played With a Double Hand and Not Alone

There was a romantic marriage in the city night before last and one which created some interest among a lot of young people in the city who are well acquainted with the principals. Wm. Colvert, a barber who works for J. H. Welliver got a bee in his bonnet and as he expressed it last night changed his mind very suddenly and decided that he would like to get married. A well known young lady of the city, Miss Edna Winters, was similarly inclined and within a few moments after they met on the night mentioned they were on the way to the court house to get a marriage license. Mr. Colvert called up Clerk of Court W. A. M. Johnston and asked him if he could be at his office at 7:30. He realized that it was asking considerable of him to be present at his sanctum at that hour but he told the genial clerk that it was a case of great urgency and intimated that he would explain things when he saw him. Mr. Johnston came down and issued the necessary documents to Colvert to marry Miss Winters.

The young twain then took the credentials and thought first of going to the revival meeting at the Baptist church and waiting for Rev. W. H. Walker. They waited outside, however, and after the meeting was over made arrangements with the pastor to tie the knot. This done Mr. and Mrs. Colvert left feeling merry and gay and went to the City hotel where they ate their wedding supper and remained until morning.

The real strain came yesterday when Colvert is said to have trembled like a leaf when the time came to break the news to the parents. A note was sent to her mother by the young lady and in the afternoon Mr. Colvert went over and had a talk with her. They explained that it was a case of joy, joy, joy and they decided that to live right in this world they must live together.

It is understood that all was forgiven and with the blessings of the paternal head they were bade go in peace, and now Colvert thinks that the old saw, "All's well that ends well," has a true meaning and they have gone to live in a cosy suite of rooms over the Drapeau confectionery store on Main street.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON

Over the Remains of Late Jesse Eastman Held From the Presbyterian Church.

Rev. W. J. Palm Officiating.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Jesse Eastman were held this afternoon from the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. J. Palm officiating.

The report of the accident which resulted in the loss of the young man's life was not exactly correct. While standing on the log he was not shooting at anything, but the gun fell from his hands and both barrels were discharged. Neither was the young man alone at the time. He was accompanied by Chan. Berrone on the hunting expedition.

George Sinclair, for whom the young man worked, was in the city today and he states that he reached the scene of the accident while Eastman was yet conscious and that he told the story of his misfortune and how the accident happened.

COMING HERE SATURDAY

Representative of the Northern League Will be Here to Look up Brainerd as Base Ball Town

There is now no question but that St. Cloud will be in the Northern league this season. The magnates are willing to admit the Stearns county metropolis into the circuit and with that understanding promoters of the club are pushing matters rapidly and have already secured a number of players.

Brainerd is the next likely city to be admitted. Some of the members of the circuit committee will take a trip there on Saturday for the purpose of looking over the ground and perfecting arrangements. The scheme has a strong financial backing in Brainerd and from the present outlook there is no doubt but that city will join the league. The third new club that will most probably enter will be Wahpeton, N. D., and Breckenridge, Minn., in combination. There is no inkling as yet as to the fourth club, but it will be known definitely within a few days. Representatives of the cities mentioned will be present at the meeting to be called at Fargo on February 18.—Duluth News-Tribune.

INDICATES BUILDING OF ROAD

Minnesota & International Calls for Deeds of Right of Way from the Settlers.

The Bemidji Pioneer says that yesterday settlers living along the survey of the Minnesota & International received deeds from the company with the request for the signatures granting the company right of way from Northome to Ripple. About 12 months ago the company asked the settlers what they demanded for the land and the deeds all run according to the terms asked by the settlers at that time.

This action on the part of the company is a strong indication that the road will be extended at least to Ripple this spring and summer. Two years ago when the road was built to Northome, work was commenced on it within 60 days from the date that the settlers received the deeds for signature granting the company the right of way.

The survey calls for the building of about 32 miles of road from Northome to Ripple and about the same distance from Ripple to Koochiching.

Curiosity Shocked Him.

Our local rural route carrier, who seems to be somewhat of a curious turn of mind, sat in the Becker hotel last Sunday evening admiring the beauty of the Becker electric light and wondering what it was composed of. His curiosity finally got the better of his good judgment and forgetting for the moment the motto, "don't monkey with the band wagon," he brought forth his knife and cut into the insulation of one of the wires, but he little thought that he was going to receive a kick harder than any government mule ever thought of. "How shocking!" We understand that when he woke up the first thing he asked was if the postal service had gone bankrupt. After being informed that the government was still intact, he cast a suspicious glance at the remaining light and edged away as if that one might also take a notion to give him "one-a-punch."

The young man was not injured, however, but got what was coming to him out of the 240 volts carried on the system. He does not yet know just what the light is composed of, but thinks it must contain about equal parts of eusness and greased lightning. The neighbors say that his curiosity has been entirely satisfied.—Becker Record

TWO VESSELS CAUGHT

HELD FAST AMID THE MASSES OF

ICE IN THE HARBOR OF ST.

JOHNS, N. F.

CREWS IN GRAVEST DANGER

LITTLE HOPE OF SAVING THEM

IF THE SHIPS ARE GROUND

TO PIECES.

St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 9.—Two vessels, the brig Energy, bound inward, and the brig Vidonia, outward bound, are caught amid the masses of an ice floe which packed against the harbor Tuesday night. It is feared that both vessels will be destroyed before morning, in which case little hope of rescuing their crews is entertained.

Tugs failed in an attempt to reach them Wednesday. The Energy signalled that she was short of provisions. A party of men were sent over the ice with food which was caught in the blizzard and their fate is unknown.

St. Louis, Feb. 9.—John J. Ryan, who was indicted on the charge of having embezzled $900,000 in a "get-rich-quick" scheme, and whose trial was called Wednesday, will be acquitted by the jury selected to try his case, under instructions from Judge Foster, who early Wednesday night sustained the demurrer filed by Ryan's counsel to the state's case.

After hearing Judge Foster's decision on the demurrer, Circuit Attorney Sager stepped forward and announced to Judge Foster that inasmuch as the case in which the state's witnesses had just been heard was the strongest he had against Ryan, he would enter nolle prosequi in the remaining three.

Ryan left the courtroom apparently in the best of spirits. "I told you so," he declared to those about him. "I never should have been brought to trial on any of these cases. It is a civil matter. The federal court has passed upon it and the creditors got their 15 per cent of the claims upon the company, so what criminal action can they have against me?"

The case on which Ryan went to trial is that in which Mrs. Elizabeth Bierlein of No. 4424 Tennessee avenue, is the complaining witness. It is charged that $70 was accepted from Mrs. Bierlein after the company was known to be insolvent on Feb. 10, 1903.

IN FAVOR OF AMERICA.

English Privy Council Renders Decision in Gaynor-Greene Case.

London, Feb. 9.—The privy council rendered its decision during the morning in the Greene-Gaynor case in favor of the American government.

The council reversed the two judgments of Justice Caron of Quebec, rendered Aug. 15, 1902, and ordered the respondents to pay the costs of the appeal.

The decision simply reverses Justice Caron's judgments and leaves Greene and Gaynor under remand as before Justice Caron intervened.

John F. Gaynor and Benjamin D. Greene were indicted in Savannah, Ga., Dec. 8, 1899, charged with embezzlement and defrauding the United States government, together with Captain Oberlin M. Carter, in the performance of government contracts for the improvement of the Savannah river and other river and harbor work in that district, the illicit profits being estimated at $2,000,000.

AGAINST FARIBAULT BANKER.

Charge of Misappropriation of Large Sum Is Made.

Faribault, Minn., Feb. 9.—T. B. Clement is alleged to have appropriated to his own use the proceeds of the Robinson estate to the amount of $60,000, in an action brought Wednesday in the district court by Mrs. Ehle of Minneapolis and Mrs. Joel P. Heatwole of Northfield. Clement is the president of the First National bank, now held under bonds to the United States grand jury in a suit brought by the receiver of the bank.

The action is brought jointly against Clement, Dr. A. C. Rogers and John Hutchinson, who were cotrustees of the estate.

OREGON BANK ROBBED.

Vault Door Blown Off and Nine Thousand Dollars Taken.

Lebanon, Ore., Feb. 9.—The Bank of Lebanon was blown open Wednesday and robbed of almost $9,000 in coin and currency. One hundred bales of cascara bark from a nearby warehouse were used to deaden the sound of the explosion. The door of the vault was blown completely off by a charge of nitroglycerin. All the cash in the vault was taken.

Wisconsin Man Killed.

Portchester, N. Y., Feb. 9.—A man supposed to be E. C. Allen, general sales agent for the Appleton Car Mover company of Appleton, Wis., was struck and killed here Wednesday by an express train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railway. He was crossing the tracks.

SINS OF THE CULTURED

W. J. Bryan Tells a University's Alumni What They Are.

SCHOLARS NEGLECTFUL OF PEOPLE

Colleges Educate Minds and Not Hearts, Says the Nebraskan—Great Indictment Against the Cultured Is That They Do Not Use Their Powers For Helpful Service—Light of a Better Day Dawning.

William Jennings Bryan, who recently addressed the Alumni association of Syracuse university at New York on "The Appeal of Democracy to the Cultured Classes," said in part:

"I have lost no opportunity in recent years to make the acquaintance of the people of the east. Something I said in 1896 was taken not as I intended it. I said something about the 'enemy's country.' After looking at the results of two elections, that was true in a sense. But I did not mean it in the way it was interpreted.

"I am not embarrassed in so far as Syracuse is denominational in its leanings, because my mother was a Methodist and became a Baptist to please my father. My wife was a Methodist and became a Presbyterian to please me. As my father took one and I took another from the Methodist church, I have made up for it by attending a Methodist church near my farm for two years.

"I have always liked the friendliness of the Methodist church, and there is a doctrine in the Presbyterian church that I do not like, and that is the one of election. I have had a good deal of trouble about that, both religiously and otherwise.

"But I have seen a light through the controversy of a southern Presbyterian and Methodist, both colored parsons. The Presbyterian explained it to my satisfaction, saying that there was voting going on all the time. The Lord was voting one way and the devil another, and whichever way the individual voted the election went.

"The pleasure I have in meeting you is that I bear a message to you. 'Democracy's Appeal to Culture' is my theme. I do not speak in a partisan sense.

"I would speak to you of culture on behalf of the people at work—the common people, if you will. That is not a term of reproach. The uncommon people are not so important as they think they are. The common people produce the national wealth.

"Real culture is not alone refinement of taste and intellectual attainment and capacity. The right sort of culture is an enlargement of the capacity for service and the willingness to improve the opportunities culture gives. The cultured people have not been living up to their responsibility and opportunities.

"The scholar does not do his duty to the people of today, and he has not done it in the past. Democracy, the spirit of the republic, appeals to culture for justice, truthfulness and service. We do not see so much of the brutal sins of the past, like assault and battery and highway robbery, but there are modern sins.

"Food is adulterated, endangering life. Isn't it a strange thing that supposedly Christian men will to declare dividends neglect to supply their men with safety appliances and allow the sacrifice of life through the working of children in the factories?

"There are enormous wrongs in methods that are sometimes considered respectable. Look at the great swindling operations in your city banks. There are cases of bank burglary by officials far worse than those for which men serve terms in Sing Sing. People trust the great names of finance and are robbed by fraudulent fluctuations caused by watered stock.

"It is too true that the cultured assume themselves to be superior to their brothers and begrudge small advantages to even the less cultured. The greatest indictment against the cultured is not that they do wrong openly or willfully, but because they stand idle in the vineyard and do not use their powers for helpful service. The trouble is that the colleges do too much to educate the mind and not the heart.

"I have never intentionally said anything that could be construed as arraying class against class. I do not believe that there are two classes in heaven, and so why can't the two classes get together here on earth?

"The scholar must be something more than a simple mental machine. The humblest human being is greater than the greatest statue. I am not a pessimist and see today better things and better times coming.

"The tide toward the great associations of wealth is turning, and the light of a better day is dawning. Here, there and everywhere there is an awakening of the civic conscience."

The Antislavery Japs.

During the present war the Japanese have followed the new rule generally of not amputating shattered limbs on the fields of battle, but of putting a plaster of paris dressing on them, says the London Globe. So far out of 600 wounded Russians only one arm has been amputated, and in that case the arm had to be removed in consequence of trouble supervening. In all cases the bones have healed well. It is clear that the gunshot wounds from the modern infantry rifle are less dangerous to life than they were in former days. Wounds received in the lungs or stomach heal often without any surgical treatment or operation. All pieces of shot or fragments taken from wounded men are sent to Tokyo, where they are being preserved.

OIL INSPECTION LAWS

RESOLUTION IN THE HOUSE PROVIDES FOR AN INVESTIGATION OF THEM.

REPRESENTATIVE OLESON OF CHISAGO COUNTY THINKS THEM OBSOLETE.

St. Paul, Feb. 9.—Standard Oil interests are likely to be on the spit, if a resolution, offered by J. L. Oleson of Chisago county in the house Wednesday, prevails.

Representative Oleson has a strong opinion that the present oil inspection laws are obsolete, and he wants a committee named to make an investigation. A resolution to that effect was offered by Mr. Oleson and it was sent to the committee on illuminating oils.

The real intent of the resolution is to bring about legislation that will give Minnesota the gravity test law of South Dakota, so bitterly fought by the Standard Oil interests, and to this end the resolution empowers the committee, if named, to summon witnesses, compel testimony and to otherwise secure information on the subject that will be valuable in preparing new legislation, if necessary.

It is claimed that the illuminating oil now offered is of very poor grade. Minnesota uses what is known as the fire test, but, according to Former Oil Inspector Schiffman, under present conditions, it is practically of no value.

In line with Representative Johnson's resolution, providing for a visit to Menominee, Wis., to inspect the agricultural and domestic school at that place, Speaker Clague named a committee consisting of Representatives Perley, Johnson, Stone, Morley and Lynch, to make the trip.

General Flower's two bills, making it a crime to influence or bribe a legislature-elect, were reported out of the committee on crimes with recommendations that they pass.

The committee on commerce reported favorably on Representative Zelch's bill, protesting to congress against the proposed drawback on Canadian wheat.

Under Suspension of the Rules.

On a suspension of the rules Representative Craig secured the passage of H. F. 212, permitting the issuance of bonds by organized towns for the building of roads, bridges and public buildings. The act has special reference to Sherburne.

H. F. No. 111, by Larson, giving counties the right of eminent domain, was passed under a suspension of the rules.

H. F. No. 221, introduced by Mr. Hammergren, St. Paul, provides for the appointment of a county expert printer in counties having population of 75,000 or more. Referred to Ramsey, Hennepin and St. Louis delegation.

The curtailment of the use and sale of cocaine and preparations containing that deadly drug is attempted in a bill introduced in the house by W. A. Anderson, Winona. Under this bill the drug can only be sold on a prescription, issued by a duly licensed physician, and then only once on the same prescription. A record of the amount sold, to whom sold, and other particulars, must be kept and this to be open for inspection by the authorities at all times.

For violation a fine of $50 and a term in the workhouse is provided, and, in case of the druggist or physician involved, their state licenses are to be revoked.

Liens on personal property, with the right to sell the same and recover the value of the lien, are provided in a bill offered by R. T. Lewis. It has special reference to goods in storage, and the feeding and maintaining of cattle.

SOME FEELING ENGENDERED.

By Senator Thorpe's Wheat Drawback Resolution in the Senate.

Some feeling was engendered on Wednesday in the senate when Senator Thorpe called up his resolution, which protests against the giving of drawbacks on mixed Canadian and American flour and asked that it be discussed as the order of business.

Senator Calhoun of Minneapolis moved a reference to the committee on warehouse and grain. He stated that he did not have an opportunity to study the question involved and a hearing before the committee would give all interested an opportunity for free discussion.

Mr. Thorpe had no desire to show undue haste, but the resolution had already laid over several days and its significance and meaning were well understood. He protested against any reference. The resolution should be discussed in the open senate. Minneapolis was not the entire state of Minnesota and the legislature must reckon with the farmers, who were being discriminated against if this law passed.

Senators Calhoun and Wilson discussed the matter with Mr. Thorpe, and the upshot of the discussion was the withdrawal of opposition to reference by the author of the resolution, which went to the committee on grain and warehouse.

The bill providing for the acquisition of suitable land and the building of new structures for the prison at Stillwater was passed; also H. F. No. 111, which provides means by which title to lands for courthouse purposes may be obtained by counties.

RUSSIAN CLAMOR FOR WORK

Editor Turkevitch Says Revolution and Constitution Are Not Desired.

The Rev. Benedict J. Turkevitch, rector of the Russian Orthodox church in Bridgeport, Conn., and the editor of Siet (Light), a prominent Russian paper in the United States, who recently returned from a three months' visit to Russia, spoke as follows on the disturbances there, says the New York Tribune:

"The people of Russia, the peasant class, do not want a revolution or a constitution. They do not know the meaning of revolution or constitution. 'Let me explain, so far as I am able, the situation relative to the working classes. The country districts about St. Petersburg—in fact, about any large city—are very densely populated. There is little land to work as it is, and what soil has been worked is worked out. The people are unable to make a living and consequently flock in great numbers to the cities. Here they are willing to work for almost nothing, for enough to eat. But with this great influx of labor come distressing conditions. There is very little work, and there are a great many hands to do it. The employers therefore are able to hire labor very cheaply, and at the same time this leaves a great many men without work. The supply far exceeds the demand. Of course there is a great clamoring for work and for higher wages and shorter hours, similar to the demand in America. It is my firm belief that this priest, Gopon, as he calls himself, and his lieutenants have willfully brought these people to believe that the petition they drew up was along these lines, whereas they took advantage to institute in it their own revolutionary ideas and have made the people unwilling aids and puppets, unbeknown to themselves.

"I do not believe that these disturbances will have any effect toward ending the war with Japan. I am well satisfied that the soldiers will blame the people for this trouble. They realize that force is necessary to subdue a lawless mob led by fanatical reformers. In fact, the army has known of the disturbances of the working people for some time, and they have had no effect. There is no talk among the soldiers of revolution. I give you my word that the people, the masses of Russia, do not want revolution, they do not want a constitution, but they do want work, and where there is no work for them what is there to do?"

"I believe that this trouble has been simmering along for some time under the utmost secrecy. These agitators have been misleading the mass of the people. They have given the mob to understand that the demands upon the czar grew out of purely industrial reasons, but they have also taken advantage of the ignorance of the people and their inability to read or write to work on their own fanatical ideas of constitutional rights and have led them on into a revolutionary action. I honestly believe that if the mass of that mob which engaged in the struggle last Sunday (Jan. 22) knew the real cause of the shooting and the real purpose of the leaders in agitating them they would tear those leaders into pieces."

MAN A LIVING ICEBERG.

Frozen to Front Platform of Car in Long Train Trip.

Riveted to the platform of a car on the Buffalo limited of the New York Central railroad by a coating of ice, which held him as firmly to the floor as if he were bound by chains of iron, Michael Conlin, a Bridgeport man, arrived in Syracuse the other morning frozen into an unconscious human iceberg after a trip from Utica, says a Syracuse special to the New York Press.

When the train pulled into the station the trainmen noticed the form of the man crouched on the front platform of one of the cars. Upon investigation it was found he was unconscious and frozen as firmly to the platform as if he had been bound there with ropes. He was taken to the baggage room of the station, where his clothes, which resembled a coat of mail, were partly thawed out, and a St. Joseph's hospital ambulance was summoned. In the hospital restoratives were applied, and the man recovered consciousness. It was said he would recover.

Conlin is said to have climbed on the train in Utica as it was pulling out. He became chilled through and finally numb. As the train was taking water in Rome while in motion the spray dashed over him and froze, soldering him to the platform, and in this way his life was saved, as he would have surely rolled from the train otherwise.

Mrs. Fish's Vaudeville Show.

Novelty was lent to Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish's entertainment and supper the other evening in New York by the decorations and the Japanese dances, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger's New York correspondent. Mrs. Fish wore a blue net gown embroidered in silver, diamonds and turquoises. While the guests were being received a Spanish girl in costume danced to the music of guitars. After all the guests had arrived Mrs. Fish led the way up the curving stairs to the second floor, where, at the head of the stairs, they entered an apple orchard in full bloom, with canary birds singing. Long, carved wooden pipes and fancy steins decorated the tables on which the supper was served while the entertainment went on. Electric lights were arranged separately and in clusters through the foliage and flowers, and the canary birds were in cages concealed behind these.
